Preface

As part of the McGowan Government's commitment to transforming local government in WA, the Local Government Legislation Amendment Act 2019 introduces a mandatory code of conduct for council members, committee members and candidates. These reforms are intended to ensure that standards of behaviour are consistent between local governments and address community expectations.

This document outlines the proposed Code which will inform the drafting of regulations. This is contained in the grey boxes. The accompanying guidelines provide clarification and guidance in relation to compliance and enforcement of the Code and would be available on the Department's website.

The proposed Code and guidelines have been developed by the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries in consultation with representatives from the Public Sector Commission, the Ombudsman, the Western Australian Local Government Association (WALGA) and Local Government Professionals WA (LG Pro). The Department gratefully acknowledges the participation of these representatives.

The Department notes that the content of the Code does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the organisations or individuals that have been consulted.

Feedback is sought on the proposed Code and guidelines and associated matters.

A survey is available at www.dlgsc.wa.gov.au/lgareview or you can provide your feedback to actreview@dlgsc.wa.gov.au by 6 December 2019.

Mandatory Code of Conduct

Preamble

The purpose of this Code of Conduct (Code) is to guide the decisions, actions and behaviours of council members, committee members and candidates running for election.

As an elected representative, council members govern the affairs and are responsible for the performance of their local government. To do this, council members must demonstrate professional and ethical behaviour to build and strengthen trust in their communities.

A person who has nominated to be a council member is also required to demonstrate professional and ethical behaviour during the election campaign.

In addition to carrying out the duties outlined in the Local Government Act 1995, council members and committee members must comply with the provisions in this Code of Conduct in carrying out their functions as public officials. It is the responsibility of council members, committee members and candidates to ensure that they are familiar with, and comply with, this Code at all times.

Guidelines

The Local Government Act requires that local governments adopt the Code within three months of the amendments taking effect. Until the Code is adopted, the model Code applies.

While local governments are not able to amend Part A or Part C, additional behaviours can be included in Part B that are not inconsistent with the Code.

In considering additional behaviours, the council may give consideration to behaviours that are not currently represented in the Code that it considers are important. This may include introducing a dress standard for members or use of technology, for example.

To adopt the Code, a resolution passed by an absolute majority is required. Once the Code is adopted, it must be published on the local government's official website.

Part A – Principles

Council members and candidates are expected to adhere to and promote and support the following principles by example. Adhering to these principles will ensure that council members and candidates can comply with the behaviours outlined in Part B or conduct as outlined in Part C. All behaviour should be considered against these principles, whether or not it is covered specifically in Part B or Part C.

Personal integrity

- 1.1 Act with care and diligence and participate in decision making in an honest, fair, impartial and timely manner, considering all relevant information.
- 1.2 Act with honesty, integrity and uphold the concept of natural justice.

- 1.3 Identify, declare and appropriately manage any conflicts of interest in the public interest and the interests of the Council including not accepting gifts that may give the appearance of a conflict of interest or an attempt to corruptly influence behaviour.
- 1.4 Uphold the law, and, on all occasions, act in accordance with the trust placed in council members.
- 1.5 Avoid damage to the reputation of the local government.
- 1.6 Not be impaired by mind affecting substances while performing official duties.

Relationships with others

- 1.7 Treat others with respect, courtesy and fairness.
- 1.8 Maintain and contribute to a harmonious, safe and productive work environment for all.
- 1.9 Respect and value diversity in the workplace and in the community.

Accountability

- 1.10 Base decisions on relevant and factually correct information and make decisions on merit and in accordance with statutory obligations and good governance.
- 1.11 Be open and accountable to the public, represent all constituents and make decisions in the public interest.

Guidelines

The principles outlined in Part A are overarching behaviours that council members, committee members and candidates must take into consideration in their role as public representatives, or potential public representatives.

All council members, committee members and candidates must familiarise themselves with the Code and Guidelines and any relevant policies the local governments have in place.

Council members are generally very active in their communities which may lead to conflicts of interests. To comply with this Code, those conflicts, or perceived conflicts, need to be managed appropriately. While a member may be confident of the integrity of their actions, how the relationship and actions may appear to others must be thought through.

There are many situations that council members, committee members and candidates might find themselves in that could lead to a breach of the Code. Members should seek further guidance and advice on specific situations whenever necessary.

Part B – Behaviour

Part B sets out the standards of behaviour which enable and empower council members to meet the principles outlined in Part A. Behaviour is expected to be managed at the local level by the local government, so Part B also deals with how complaints are to be managed.

Failure to comply with this Part may give rise to a complaint against a council member's conduct, followed by a subsequent investigation and possible corrective action by the local government. The emphasis should be on an educative role to establish sound working relationships and avoid repeated breaches, rather than punishment.

Personal integrity

- 2.1 Act in line with the principles outlined in this Code when performing official duties.
- 2.2 Attend and participate constructively in council meetings, briefings, relevant workshops and training opportunities.
- 2.3 Respect and comply with all council policies, procedures and resolutions.
- 2.4 Ensure professional behaviour is not compromised by the use of alcohol or drugs.
- 2.5 Use all forms of media, including social media, in a way that complies with this Code.

Relationships with others

- 2.6 Treat other council members, council employees and members of the public with courtesy, respect, honesty and fairness.
- 2.7 Do not bully or harass council staff, other council members or members of the public in any form, including social media.
- 2.8 Deal with the media in a positive, informative and appropriate manner in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995 and relevant local government policies.
- 2.9 While acting as a council member, do not:
 - i. use offensive or pejorative language in reference to another council member, council employee or member of the public; or
 - ii. disparage the character of any council member or employee, or impute dishonest or unethical motives to them in the performance of their duties.
- 2.10 When attending a council or committee meeting, do not:
 - i. behave in an abusive or threatening manner towards another council member or other person attending the meeting;
 - ii. make statements that the person knows, or could be reasonably expected to know, that are false or misleading; or
 - iii. repeatedly disrupt the meeting.
- 2.11 When attending a council or committee meeting:
 - i. comply with the local law that relates to conduct of people at council or committee meetings;

- ii. promptly comply with any direction given by the presiding member at that meeting; and
- iii. immediately cease any conduct that has been ruled out of order by the presiding member in accordance with the local government's local law.

2.12 Direct all requests for work or actions by council staff to the CEO or the CEO's nominated delegate.

Accountability

2.13 Make decisions honestly and impartially, considering all available information, legislation, policies and procedures.

2.14 Take responsibility for decisions and actions.

2.15 Abide by the decisions of council and publicly support the decisions even if of an alternative view.

2.16 Adhere to the principles in the:

- i. Occupational Safety and Health Act 1984 (WA);
- ii. Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (WA);
- iii. Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Cth); and
- iv. Sex Discrimination Act 1984 (Cth).

Complaint management

2.17 Any person may make a complaint about a council member under this Part within three months of the alleged breach occurring.

2.18 A breach of this part does not include a matter:

- i. that is resolved by the Presiding Member during a meeting, or
- ii. where a council member complies with a request for remedial action in accordance with the relevant local law.

2.19 Complaints about an alleged breach should be made to the Mayor or President or the CEO of the local government or nominated delegate.

2.20 Complaints about an alleged breach by the Mayor or President should be made to the Deputy Mayor or President or a nominated delegate.

2.21 A complaint may be handled or managed in any manner that council deems appropriate for handling an alleged breach of this section. This includes investigation or dismissal of the complaint. This must be laid out in a council endorsed policy.

2.22 A complaint may be dismissed as trivial, vexatious or frivolous and accordingly not investigated.

Findings

2.23 Following an investigation in accordance with rule 2.21, the Council may, by resolution, make a finding of breach or no breach.

2.24 In accordance with rule 2.23, if a breach is found, the Council may, by resolution:

- i. take no action, or
- ii. prepare an action plan, developed in conjunction with the council member, to address future behaviour.

2.25	An action plan may include the requirement for the council member to undertake training, mediation or counselling or any other actions deemed appropriate by the Council.
2.26	The Council to which the member is elected, may decide, via resolution, to make an allegation of a rule of conduct breach under Part C: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. after the third finding of a breach of this Part by the same council member, or ii. where the council member fails to comply with the action plan in accordance with sub-rule 2.24(ii).
2.27	A matter under sub-rule 2.26(i) cannot be alleged as a Part C breach unless an action plan has been developed in accordance with sub-rule 2.24(ii) for the previous two breaches.
2.28	Written notification of the outcome of an alleged breach under this section must be given to the council member and complainant.
2.29	A written record must be kept of all complaints made under this Part and how they were dealt with.

Guidelines

Local governments are responsible for taking action against alleged breaches under Part B.

Local governments are to have a policy on how complaints are going to be handled or managed.

Australian/New Zealand Standards for complaints resolution AS/NZs 10002:2018 provides a tool and framework to assist local governments with developing a policy.

Whether or not local governments choose to adopt the Standard is optional, however, the policy must provide a clear outline of the steps that will be taken once a complaint is submitted. The complaint process must also uphold the principles of natural justice.

There are a number of resources for effective complaints handling available on the Ombudsman WA's website www.ombudsman.wa.gov.au

In developing a policy, the following key matters should be considered.

The complaints process

- The role of the council in the process.
- The extent to which independent persons are involved and their role in the process (complaint lodgement, investigation, findings). Local governments may decide to establish a regional or shared committee to deal with these complaints, for example.
- What types of remedial action are appropriate.
- The form of the action plan.

Process for making a complaint

- The process for a person to make a complaint needs to be clearly outlined in the policy, including whether complaints are required to be in a specific form.
- Complaints should be submitted in writing, with consideration given to a variety of methods, including email, letter or fax.
- The policy should also outline how the complaint is lodged, whether this is via a specific code of conduct complaint email address or a letter addressed to the Mayor or President (or alternative).
- The process should be simple and not act as a barrier to the raising of concerns about elected member behaviour.

Acknowledgement of the complaint

- The policy should include that complaints will be acknowledged and the timeframe for this.
- Complaints should be acknowledged in a timely manner. As part of the acknowledgement process, consideration may be given to providing information on how the complaint will be progressed. This may include providing the complainant with a copy of the complaint handling policy.

Responsiveness

- The policy should outline whether complaints are going to be addressed based on seriousness or impact of the allegation or on order of submission.
- Inclusion of an expected timeframe for the matter to be reviewed is also encouraged.

Action

- Complaints must be dealt with in an equitable, objective, timely and unbiased manner. The principle of natural justice should be applied.
- The policy needs to outline who will make the initial assessment of the complaint. This includes who will make the determination that the complaint is trivial, vexatious or frivolous or worthy of further investigation.
- The policy also needs to address the process for the investigation including:
 - giving adequate opportunity for a right of reply from both parties
 - if a breach is found, what are the actions that could be imposed by council.
- Attachment 1 provides further guidance on possible actions for breaches found against Part B.

Action plans

- Action plans are designed to provide council members with the opportunity to remedy their behaviour.
- The measures to stop the behaviour from continuing are not intended to be a punishment, rather a mechanism to prevent the behaviour from reoccurring.
- The Code requires that the action plan is prepared in conjunction with the relevant council member. This is designed to provide the council member with the opportunity to be involved in matters such as the timing of meetings or training.

- While Council is required to give the council members the opportunity, not all council members will actively participate in the process.

What happens if agreement cannot be reached

- Circumstances may arise when a Council cannot agree on the outcome of an investigation, or whether an investigation is required to an alleged breach.
- In these situations, Council may decide to engage an independent person to:
 - review the complaint
 - investigate the complaint, or
 - make recommendations on appropriate actions
- The policy should address who will be engaged as an independent person. Local governments may consider sharing the services of an independent person.

Part C – Rules of Conduct

Rules of conduct breaches are matters that:

- negatively affect the honest or impartial performance of a council member;
- involve a breach of trust placed in the council member; or
- involve the misuse of information or material.

Alleged breaches of this part can be referred to the Local Government Standards Panel (Standards Panel) in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act). A breach of this Part is a “minor breach”. In the event the Standards Panel makes a finding of breach against a council member, sanctions will be imposed in accordance with the Part 5 Division 9 of the Act.

Nothing in this part removes the obligations placed upon council members and employees (including the CEO) of the local government under the Corruption, Crime and Misconduct Act 2003.

Guidelines

A breach of Part C is considered by the Standards Panel in accordance with the Act. The Standards Panel, which was established in 2007, has the authority to make binding decisions to resolve allegations of minor misconduct. The Standards Panel is independent of the Minister for Local Government and the department.

The process for complaints under Part C is outlined in the Act. Complaints in the first instance are directed to the complaints officer at the local government. The Act provides that the complaints officer is the CEO or another officer with delegated responsibility.

As the Panel does not have investigative powers, findings and decisions are made on the basis of the information it receives. To assist with understanding each Part C rule of conduct, the elements are outlined alongside each. For a finding of breach, the Standards Panel needs to be satisfied that it is more likely than not, (on the balance of probabilities) that a breach of each element has occurred.

Personal Integrity

Misuse of local government resources	Elements of Rule of Conduct
a. resource is defined to mean tangible and intangible assets, services or other means of supporting the functions of local government, which are owned or paid for by the local government from public money. b. A person who is a council member must not either directly or indirectly use the resources of a local government — i. for the purpose of persuading electors to vote in a particular way at an election, referendum or other poll held under the Act, the Electoral Act 1907 or the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918; or ii. for any purpose other than fulfilling the legal obligations and duties of the council member's office, unless authorised under the Act, by the council or the CEO to use the resources for that purpose.	(a) the person the subject of the complaint was a council member both at the time of the conduct and the time when the Panel makes its determination; (b) the council member directly or indirectly used; (c) resources that belonged to the local government; (d) for the identified electoral purpose or any other purpose other than in their legal role as a council member; (e) without such purpose being authorised under the Act, by the council or the local government's CEO.

Securing personal advantage or disadvantaging others	Elements of Rule of Conduct
c. A person who is a council member must not make improper use of the person's office as a council member — i. to gain directly or indirectly an advantage for the person or any other person; or	(a) the person the subject of the complaint was a council member both at the time of the conduct and the time when the Panel makes its determination; (b) by engaging in the conduct, the person the subject of the complaint made use of the office of a council member (in

ii. to cause detriment to the local government or any other person. d. Repeated breaches of Part B	Elements of Rule of Conduct
e. A breach of Part B of the Code of Conduct is a minor breach if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. it occurs after the council member has been found to have committed 3 or more other breaches of Part B; or ii. the council member fails to comply with the action plan developed after a finding of inappropriate behaviour under Part B; and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> iii. the Council to which the member is elected, decides, via resolution, to make an allegation of a rule of conduct breach under this Part. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the person the subject of the complaint was a council member or candidate both at the time of the conduct and the time when the Standards Panel makes its determination; (b) the council has passed a resolution referring the matter to the Standards Panel; (c) in the case of (i) – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. the person has been found to have breached Part B of the code of conduct on at least three occasions; ii. the behaviour the subject of this complaint occurred after a finding of inappropriate behaviour; iii. the person has engaged in behaviour that is a breach of Part B of the code of conduct; iv. an action plan is in place; or (d) In the case of (ii) – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. there was an action plan in place; ii. the action plan resulted from a previous finding of a breach of Part B; iii. the person has not complied with the action plan.

Relationships with employees

Prohibition against involvement in administration	Elements of Rule of Conduct
3.7 A person who is a council member must not undertake a task that contributes to the administration of the local government unless authorised by the CEO to undertake that task.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the person the subject of the complaint was a council member both at the time of the conduct and the time when the Panel makes its determination; (b) the council member took on or was involved or participated in the performance, attempted performance, or part-performance, of a function or responsibility which under the

3.8 Rule 3.7 does not apply to anything that a council member does as part of the deliberations at a council or committee meeting.	Act or by delegation it is for the local government’s CEO to perform or direct; and (c) such taking on, involvement or participation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. contributed (for example, played a part in achieving) something; and ii. did not occur as anything the council member did as part of the deliberations at a council or committee meeting (which may include something the member did as part of their preparation for any such deliberation); and (d) the local government’s CEO did not authorise such taking on, involvement or participation.
