

How to place yourself on the Banned drinkers register (BDR) in Carnarvon and Gascoyne Junction

Apply for a voluntary banned drinker order (BDO) to put yourself on the BDR to help keep yourself, your family and your community safe.

Getting a voluntary BDO is as easy as 1-2-3

Step 1: Download the application form at www.dlgsc.wa.gov.au/bdr

Step 2: Fill in your details and other information

Step 3: Email your application to bdr@dlgsc.wa.gov.au

Or you can also email your full name, date of birth, home address, mobile number, and a copy of your photo identification to bdr@dlgsc.wa.gov.au.

Applications are processed within two business days.

To remove yourself from a voluntary BDO, email bdr@dlgsc.wa.gov.au.

While on the BDR you cannot buy or have takeaway alcohol in your possession. If a friend provides you with takeaway alcohol, police can place them on the BDR.

Remember even on a voluntary BDO, police can seize and dispose of takeaway alcohol in your possession.
